Russia Accuses Ukraine of Assassination Attempt on Putin at Kremlin (AlJazeera 3rd May)

A number of Russian news agencies report Russian authorities are accusing Ukraine of an overnight drone attack on the Kremlin on Wednesday, threatening the life of Russian President Vladimir Putin. The Kremlin denounced the attack as 'an act of terrorism' and reserved the right to retaliate stating:

"The Kremlin has assessed these actions as a planned terrorist act and an assassination attempt on the president on the eve of Victory Day, the May 9 Parade".

The President is not believed to have been injured and no damage is apparent on the building, President Putin continued with duties as normal on Thursday. Russia's claims have been refuted by Ukrainian authorities.

Man Arrested Outside Palace in Possession of a Knife (Met Police 3rd May) <sup>1. 2.</sup>

London's Metropolitan Police confirmed on Wednesday the arrest of a man on suspicion of possession of an offensive weapon, after being detained outside Buckingham Palace on Tuesday evening. 60-year-old dog breeder David Huber was observed throwing what appeared to be shotgun cartridges into Palace grounds at around 19:00 hours after his request to speak to a soldier was refused. He was detained and searched at the scene where a knife was discovered. A bag discarded at the scene believed to be owned by the suspected was destroyed in a controlled explosion as a precaution after the suspect told officers to handle it with care. The Met Police arrested the offender within five minutes and stress the suspect was not in possession of a firearm and they are not treating the incident as terror related.

MUSEUMS

Korean Student Eats USD 120,000 Italian Artist's Exhibit on Display in Seoul (Independent 2nd May)

An art exhibit entitled 'Comedian' consisting of a banana taped to a wall and displayed at a gallery in Seoul as part of an exhibition by Italian artist Maurizio Cattelan was eaten by a visiting student who claimed he consumed the work of art because he was hungry. The student taped the empty banana peel back to the wall declaring 'isn't it taped there to be eaten?'. The fruit is replaced every two or three days with a fresh piece. It isn't the first time the piece of art has been eaten, in 2019 a performance artist in Miami ate the exhibit documenting it on social media and calling it an art performance and not vandalism.

Protest Guidance

GENERAL ADVICE

- It is recommended you maintain a good awareness of your surroundings if in the vicinity of a demonstration or public gathering as some protests may escalate into violence.
- Anticipate localised travel disruption in the area of the demonstration.
- Allow additional time for journeys or arrange alternate routes to minimise potential delays.
- If in the area of a spontaneous protest, it is recommended to leave the area by the quickest means possible and seek a secure location.
- Continue to monitor media sources for updates and additions to the scheduled events.
- Consider the possibility of regular protests occurring throughout the summer as they are often not isolated events, with activists returning to the same locations time and again.

KEEPING STAFF INFORMED AND PREPARED

- Inform staff that routes to work may be impacted by protest groups.
- Keep staff updated and provide guidance on how to approach the site (e.g. consider dressing down, no identification on display on approach to site, organised travel from transport hubs).
- Morning Briefs to include lockdown measures and scenario discussion to aid confidence in SOPs.
- Escalation and Incident procedures to be brief. Allocated Team Leads to be communicated.
- Named First Aiders on site to be communicated to the rest of the team daily.

ACCESS CONTROL

- Secondary access points to be used, in order to keep main access areas clear.
- Perimeter Surveillance to be proactively undertaken.
- Reinforce security on approach to site.

PATROLS

- To identify suspicious activity in the area.
- Vary patrols by changing routes and frequency.
- Check all exterior perimeter fencing.

STAFF

- Consider increasing the number of staff on duty.
- Consider patrolling in pairs if appropriate.
- Staff access to the building may be prevented. Consideration should be given to working from another location.

SOCIAL MEDIA AND CYBER SECURITY

- Monitor social media platforms for chatter regarding protests in your vicinity.
- Further guidance to staff could be given regarding their personal cyber security to ensure no cyber-attacks via home working Wi-Fi.
